Varholy, HQ deputy chief financial officer, retiring

Stephen J. Varholy, deputy chief financial officer at NASA Headquarters in Washington, will retire Sept. 3, according to NASA Administrator Sean O'Keefe. Varholy also has been serving as acting chief financial officer. He joined NASA in 1995. "Steve's fiscal acumen and his management experience have both played important roles in preparing the Agency for a new cost accounting infrastructure," O'Keefe said. Kenneth J. Winter, chief financial officer at NASA's Langley Research Center in Hampton, Va., will serve as acting deputy chief financial officer until a permanent replacement is selected.
